

Chris Van "Spey" Van Speybroeck

Known for his smile and his athletic "coachable" talent, his world was filled with innumerable friends. Chris graduated from Alleman in 2006 and went on to Kirkland Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Quick-witted and adored by everyone, this young man's work ethic and determination left a reputation of "what a neat guy" to all who met him.

A brief illness called bacterial meningitis took him at age 21. His parents and brothers created the Chris "Spey" Van Speybroeck Memorial Scholarship to help send seniors from Alleman, Moline Rock Island, and UT High Schools for education in the medical field specifically for the care and awareness of meningococcal disease and its prevention.
